

The Connection Coach

Terms and Conditions

1. Client acknowledges and understands that our work together will never lead to a relationship outside of this professional relationship.
2. Client and Coach both agree to practice attention to personal boundaries at all times.
3. Client acknowledges and understands that sessions are strictly platonic.
  - While the client may need to express sexual desires he is otherwise discouraged from, he may do so within this container as long as the sexual desires are not acted upon in session.
  - Client acknowledges that acting on sexual desires within this container is grounds for ending the session without reimbursement.
4. I will neither diagnose nor prescribe for any condition or problem.
5. No guarantee or promises of cures have or will be made. Any benefits come from within your own awareness and self-knowledge.
6. Rachael is a guide and facilitator of your self-healing process. This is not a substitute for medical treatment.
7. Client confidentiality is to be respected at all times.
